HOTEL 71 GIVES ROMANCE A NEW VIEW
WITH SWOON-WORTHY OFFERINGS FOR VALENTINE'S DAY

CHICAGO (January 18, 2012) – Couples looking to rekindle their romance this Valentine's Day need look no further than two special options presented at Hotel 71. Atop the hotel on the 39th floor overlooking the Chicago River and Chicago's illuminating skyline, an intimate dining experience awaits. For those looking to enjoy a relaxed, yet refined evening, Hoyt's Chicago will be hosting another dinner simultaneously down below.

Brightened fully by candlelight and the city skyline, the private dinner on the hotel's 39th floor penthouse ballroom featuring floor-to-ceiling windows, and a 360 degree view, a three-course meal awaits with options and offerings such as seared scallops with pineapple purée, roasted corn bisque with roasted red peppers served with a crab orange salad, cilantro crusted lamb chops with a parsnip and apple purée, and to finish with decadence, the chocolate experience of puddings, coffee tarts, and chocolate mousses. The meal is served with a bottle of wine paired for the occasion, and a celebratory champagne toast.

Couples looking to celebrate Valentine's Day in a more casual atmosphere will find Hoyt's, the perfect environment for a romantically relaxed evening. The three-course Valentine's Day menu, crafted by Executive Chef Gabriel Kolofon, redefines American tavern classics with offerings such as Granny Smith and endive salad, butternut squash soup, cilantro crusted lamb chops, roasted whitefish, and to finish, the restaurants acclaimed chocolate experience. .

Reservations are required and can be made by calling the hotel at 312.346.7100. Pricing is $200 per couple for the 39th floor penthouse experience, and $60 per person at Hoyt's, excluding tax and gratuity
